

The current ownership rules prevent the loss of our freedom of the press. Not from a dictatorial government, but rather from the concentration of interests through ownership. These rules serve the public interest and should be retained. Please vote to retain the current rules.